Identify and underline the joining words in this paragraph.

Saba's First Day of School

Today was Saba's first day of school. Her mother packed sandwiches and fruits for lunch. She waited for her school bus at the stop but it came a little late. Saba finally reached school. She made new friends in the class. During lunch time, she sat with her new friends and shared the food. After lunch, she looked around for water but could not find the water tap. One of her new friends gave Saba some water to drink. The day was over and Saba reached home where her Beeji was waiting.
