

Grammar Frolics-5
Ch 7 Adjectives
Worksheet 1

Name: _____ Class: V Sec: _____ Roll No: _____ Date: _____

Choose the correct option to identify the kind of underlined adjectives.

1. In Pune itself one could get excellent bananas and grapes.
 - a. Adjective of quality
 - b. Adjective of quantity
2. Granny gave them the keys to her safe.
 - a. Demonstrative adjective
 - b. Possessive adjective
3. My grandmother caught two burglars when even the police couldn't.
 - a. Adjective of quantity
 - b. Adjective of number
4. Which man had three partners?
 - a. Interrogative adjective
 - b. Adjective of quality
5. The burglars could not take any money from the house.
 - a. Adjective of quantity
 - b. Adjective of number

Grammar Frolics-5

Ch 7 Adjectives

Worksheet 2

Name: _____ Class: V Sec: _____ Roll No: _____ Date: _____

Complete the story with different kinds of adjectives as directed in the bracket.

Once upon a time in a _____ (adjective of quality) forest, lived a lion named Mustafa. Mustafa was the king of the forest. He was _____ (adjective of quality) towards all the other animals. There were _____ (adjective of quantity) animals who loved Mustafa except Lira, the hyena. Mustafa had _____ (adjective of number) friends – Raj, the wise elephant, Bella, the swift deer, and Milo, the friendly monkey. They often gathered near _____ (possessive adjective) den, sharing stories and laughter. One day, Mustafa noticed that Lira was trying to influence _____ (possessive adjective) friends against him.

He understood that Lira was trying to break the bond of friendship. He went to Lira and asked, 'What do you want?' Lira replied, 'I want to be the king of _____ (demonstrative adjective) jungle.' Mustafa smiled and said, 'For that you have to be kind and loving towards all.' Lira understood that Mustafa has built _____ (possessive adjective) empire with lots of love and kindness.