

Grammar Frolics-6

Ch 6 Nouns: Case

Worksheet 1

Name: _____ Class: VI Sec: ____ Roll No: ____ Date: _____

Rewrite these sentences, using the possessive case. Make all necessary changes. Some sentences may have more than one possessive.

1. The decision of the judges surprised everyone.

2. The toys of the children were scattered on the floor.

3. The wheels of the buses were damaged in the storm.

4. The house of my brother-in-law is near the river.

5. The uniforms of the men were neatly pressed.

Grammar Frolics-6

Ch 6 Nouns: Case

Worksheet 2

Name: _____ Class: VI Sec: ____ Roll No: ____ Date: _____

Underline the nouns that have been used in the nominative case. Circle the nouns in the objective case in these sentences.

1. The brave firefighter rescued the child from the burning house.
2. The clever student answered the difficult question.
3. The angry customer called the manager.
4. The powerful king defeated the enemy.
5. The experienced teacher taught the new students.
6. The hungry lion chased the frightened deer.
7. The scientist explained the experiment to the visitors.
8. The generous woman donated money to the charity.
9. The strict principal punished the careless boys.
10. The talented artist painted a beautiful portrait.