Worksheet 2

Last Sunday, our class visited the National Science Museum in Mumbai. The guide, Mr Arun Mehta, welcomed us and said, 'Today you will explore the wonders of space, technology, and robotics.' My friend Riya whispered, 'I hope we see the new Mars rover exhibit.'

As we entered the gallery, we noticed a sign that read, 'Please do not touch the models.' Suddenly, Karan shouted, 'Look! The robot is moving!' However, the teacher, Ms Fernandes, reminded him to remain quiet because other visitors were listening carefully to the presentation.

It was truly an unforgettable experience for all of us.
